£10k appeal effort 'is just marvellous'

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editor@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

KIND-HEARTED readers have backed the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice At Home Appeal to the tune of £10,000, just months after it was launched.

It means the appeal is now already a quarter of the way to reaching the overall target of £40,000.

Support for the appeal has been overwhelming since it was launched in February, and now the Weekly News is calling on readers and businesses to dig even deeper with donations – big or small – to help us reach the target.

Staff at St Nicholas Hospice are thrilled that so much cash has been raised to provide more services for patients in the Haverhill area in their own homes, rather than them having to travel to Bury St Edmunds.

One of the most recent donations came from Haverhill mayor Les Ager, who decided to make the appeal one of the charities he will support during his year in office. It was the £1,700 raised at his recent Mayor's Charity Dance at the Haverhill Arts Centre which pushed the appeal total over £10,000.

Cllr Ager was delighted to be a part of its success. He said: "It is brilliant because it has not been going that long."

"We had wonderful support from traders and shopkeepers in the town and it really was a good evening. We were really pleased

■ LENDING A HAND . . . generous support from local community groups and Weekly News readers – such as Wickhambrooke residents Jan King, Roz Clary, Lyn Newell and Marise Morling, who have been organising fundraising events – have helped us raise £10,000 in just a few months.

A FULL PICTURE WRAP-UP OF THIS YEAR'S BUSINESS AWARDS – PAGES 8 & 9

I would like to do another one before the end of my year in office. "Haverhill has always been very good at supporting charities and the hospice appeal is a particularly good cause."

The event attracted a sell-out audience of more than 100 people, who enjoyed dancing to the Galaxy Big Band. Cllr Ager's 11-year-old grandson, Adam Chinery, made his contribution by playing the guitar.

Simon Dawkins, retail manager for St Nicholas, told those at the dance: "I have been overwhelmed by the support we receive from Haverhill, both for the hospice itself, and for the appeal.

"The strong community spirit that we have in the town recognises what we are trying to do and wants to get involved and to help.

"People of all ages, from all parts of the town and from all walks of life have taken the Weekly News appeal to their hearts and are being unstintingly generous. Their big-heartedness will help us to assist more patients and their families in their own homes."

Barbara Gale, chief executive of St Nicholas Hospice, was full of praise for the appeal, and said: "It's fantastic to see that the Haverhill community has come together to support us in this way, and to have raised such an amount so quickly is marvellous.

"I'd like to thank everyone who has donated so far, from the man in the street up to the heads of local businesses.

"This appeal means so much to St Nicholas Hospice – we couldn't do the vital work we do without the support and generosity of the local community."

Snakes alive – it's a 60s revival

By Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FOUR friends who share a passion for 1960s music have raised thousands of pounds for charity over the past three years – and now they're hosting a concert in aid of the Weekly News £40,000 St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal.

Roz Clarry, Jan King, Lyn Newell and Marise Morling, all from Wickhambrough, started raising money for the Multiple Sclerosis Society as Lyn's husband has the condition.

They then began raising money for St Nicholas Hospice. They have already handed over £1,100 to the appeal from car boots sales and other events they have organised.

Now the four have generously pledged the proceeds of a charity dance, to be held on Friday, June 13, at Wickhambrough Memorial Social Club at 7.30pm. Tickets are on sale now at £12 each, available by ringing (01440) 820757, (01440) 820155 or (01440) 820481.

Roz, who is Linda's sister, said the four have known each other for 30 years and decided to use their common musical interest to raise some cash for good causes.

Roz said: "We like 60s

■ MUSIC FANS . . . Jan King, Roz Clarry, Lyn Newell and Marise Morling will host a 60s concert for our appeal, while Holly the English corn snake is also doing her bit to raise funds.

music and we like following the 60s groups. We became friends with Union Gap, so we asked them to come and play in our village and it started from there.

"We have a lot of fun and the more we raise, the more we can give to good causes like the hospice. We have raised more than £5,000 so far and we enjoy doing it. We thought the Hospice At Home Appeal was a good idea so that people can be treated in their own homes."

■ Rock fans can still get their tickets for a charity gig being organised by the band Umbrella Assassins at Haverhill Arts Centre on Saturday, June 21. The concert has been sponsored by local healthcare company Kirton Healthcare and will also feature Darren Michael Angelo Smith, the Kraze, Pellys Farm, Indigo and DJ sets from The Honoured Few.

Tickets are £5, available at the box office or on (01440) 714140.

■ Anyone or anything can back our appeal – even a snake!

Sam Wyatt, owner of Holly, a four-foot long English corn snake, is willing to let her pet meet anyone who may have a phobia in exchange for a donation to our appeal. Contact Sally on (01440) 703891 if you are interested.

■ Don't forget to let us publicise your fund-raising events to help make even more cash for the appeal and you can also contribute directly online.

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

More cash on way

The appeal got off to a flying start when the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce and Industry donated the £1,700 it raised at its last Haverhill Business Awards in 2005. The chamber is expecting to give it another boost after again raising cash at last Saturday's 2008 awards.

Meanwhile, golfers, Girl Guides, and many others have contributed to our total and future events include the Haverhill Charity Golf Day on June 28 and a charity gig by rock band Umbrella Assassins on June 21.

Water load of fun for tots

TINY TOTS at a pre-school were in for a treat when teachers splashed out on a special lesson to help them with their project on water. Firefighters from Haverhill paid a visit to Stepping Stones Pre-School, based at the town's Coupals Primary School, to show the youngsters how their equipment works.

Jane Kirby, nursery assistant, said: "As the children have been looking at water and how it is used, we thought the fire service would be the ideal people to come and show them.

"They showed them the hose and their engine – it was very exciting for them."

Rally challenge for duo in £200 banger

THE skills of a Haverhill motoring company are being put to a severe test this week as one of its directors attempts to drive to Portugal in an "old banger" which cost just £200.

Jonathan Van Niekerk of Technics Motors in Homefield Road, Haverhill, is taking part in the 2,000 mile Blue Print Rally charity run with his friend Derek Gray. They set off on the week-long run from Kent on Saturday. Their aim is to raise as much money as possible through sponsorship for Ben, a charity which helps people with disabilities who are connected to the motor trade.

The rules of the event say the vehicle used must not cost more than £200. The 1990 Toyota 1990 Celica which Jonathan bought for £205 on eBay certainly fits the bill and already has close to 200,000 miles on the clock.

Jonathan and his 75-year-old co-driver Derek will have to cover between 200 and 300 miles a day through France and Spain along with 30 other cars to reach their destination near Lisbon. The car has been carefully restored in the company premises to make sure it is up to the journey and given some stylish new paintwork and graphics by Stylyze Digital Artwork.

The team has named itself "Don't Dream It Be It" after a line from the Rocky Horror Show musical.

Jonathan said he had received great help on the restoration work from other local companies including Treadfirst Tyres and Autozone and was very optimistic that the car would complete the journey.

He said: "It is a solid little car, but it has cost more to make it roadworthy than it cost.

"A lot of people plan to abandon their cars when they get there, but I am hoping ours will get back. Derek was the only person who could spare the time to come with me and we are looking forward to the challenge."

Prison cash cuts 'will push up re-offending'

DRUG dealers can stand outside a Suffolk prison and throw drugs over the fence unchallenged because of a lack of staff and resources according to inspectors.

Strong criticism of under-funding is made in the Independent Monitoring Board's annual reports on both Highpoint Prison and nearby Edmunds Hill Prison at Stratishall.

The report on Highpoint says swinging "efficiency cuts" over the last few years have been followed by serious reductions to the money potentially available over the next three years, and questions whether the Government is concerned about reducing the rate of re-offending.

BY Jo Deeks

The report on Edmunds Hill says the general picture is of a well managed prison with caring staff. However, inspectors warn that limited funding means, "for Edmunds Hill and the service as a whole there is a danger – if not a reality – that the prison service becomes the Cinderella of public service".

The report points out that the cost to the taxpayer of re-offending, together with the cost to the victim, is enormous and growing.

It adds: "The Foundation Training Company do some excellent work at Edmunds Hill but at any one time there are only places for eight prisoners on its course out of a population of 360. This is excellent work but just not enough to make a difference."

The board believes additional money invested in rehabilitation would result in savings in costs from re-offending, but admits: "The reality is that Edmunds Hill – as with other prisons – is asked to cut its budget year-on-year."

Edmunds Hill is classified as a male training prison, with 366 male prisoners. Concern is also expressed about the delayed release of foreign nation prisoners and prisoners with mental health problems who should not be within the prison system.

At Highpoint 800 prisoners are held and the report said morale continued to be low as staff shortages meant specialist staff were taken away from their duties and language problems were still occurring with foreign prisoners.

Ken Ellis, chairman of the monitoring board, said: "Officer shortages have resulted in major loss of association hours for prisoners, although this was worse in the first half of the year when uncertainty of exactly when they would be additionally 'banged up' resulted in heightened tension among the prisoners."

"Two police intelligence officers now operate between five local prisons but there is still no co-operation in the attempts to reduce the impunity with which drug dealers are able to stand outside the prison and throw drugs over the fence."

Cash for tots group

A LOCAL National Childbirth Trust (NCT) group has collected a funding windfall. Halstead and Sudbury NCT, received £4,520 from the lottery-funded Awards for All scheme, and £7,034 from the local charity Colchester Catalyst.

The money will be used to train postnatal leader Caroline Stinson and breastfeeding counsellor Victoria Burton-Davey. Jane Bellingham, vice-chair of the group, said: "The branch is delighted to receive such support for our work with new and expectant parents. "Our volunteers have been working in the community to enable other parents to benefit from the activities and services our charity provides."

Housing scheme

PLANS to build a two-storey house, following the demolition of an existing outhouse, and a single-storey rear extension to the existing house at Pask Avenue, Haverhill, have been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Tastes of home – and help – for new workers

POLISH and Portuguese workers in Haverhill can get a taste of home cooking and find out more about what is available in their adopted home town at a special event on Saturday.

Polish worker Monika Drag, who has lived in Haverhill since September, has teamed up with St Edmundsbury Borough Council to set up the event at Haverhill Arts Centre in the High Street.

Visitors to the event can taste some traditional Polish and Portuguese foods, meet other people from their home countries and find out more about services available in Haverhill, which the language barrier may have prevented them from finding out about so far. The event takes place from 2-5pm.

Monika, 25, moved to Haverhill with her husband Zbagniew to try a new culture and is very happy with her new life.

She has already used her English skills to help other workers who speak very little of the language and hopes to extend that role and form a new group to help the growing Polish and Portuguese communities in Haverhill.

Monika said: "I had family here and I was curious.

"My brother was here and he said it was a different kind of life, with a different kind of people, so we decided to try something different.

"The wages are higher here, but I am doing completely different stuff here to what I was doing in Poland. I worked in local government in Poland and now I am making sushi.

"My first job was at Dalehead Foods, then I heard they needed someone at Cambridge Sushi Company in Haverhill and it has worked out just fine.

"I had never eaten sushi before, but I like it very much it is a delicious food, very different but also healthy."

She added: "There are so many Polish people here now and I think they should have something more than just a job.

"A lot of them don't speak much English and it will be good to organise something to make them feel less homesick.

"It is a completely different culture and they don't know where they should go for help, they need information."

Awards celebrate the best of sports

NOMINATIONS are being sought for the second annual Abbeycroft Leisure Sports Awards, to be held in September.

A total of 11 accolades will be presented to individuals, teams, clubs and schools in the St Edmundsbury region to celebrate their sporting achievements.

The awards are open to anyone who lives in St Edmundsbury or is a member of a St Edmundsbury sporting organisation.

The closing date for entries is August 5 and this year the prestigious event will be held on Sunday, September 7, at the Corn Exchange in Bury St Edmunds. Nominees will be invited to attend the awards evening.

All St Edmundsbury winners will be entered into the County Sports Awards. Last year three winners also went on to win the Suffolk Sport Award.

Police boss back to take on crime

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A KEY police figure from the Ipswich murders investigation has returned to Haverhill.

New Neighbourhood Inspector Andy Smith is being welcomed following the promotion of Adrian Dawson to chief inspector.

Chief Insp Dawson has been in charge of policing in Haverhill since October 2006 and next Monday will be moving to a new role, taking command of the police operations centre at Suffolk Police headquarters in Martlesham.

Replacing him is Acting Inspector Smith, who most recently worked on the Ipswich murders as a deputy senior investigating officer and disclosure officer, but previously worked in Haverhill as a detective sergeant.

Chief Insp Dawson said he had enjoyed his time in the town, and is proud of the achievements of his officers and staff.

He said: "I am particularly pleased that detected crime has increased and crime levels have been reduced.

"I'm also pleased to have been involved in the creation of Safer Neighbourhood Teams in Haverhill, which are now targeting problems identified by the community, as well as being involved in youth project work and the implementation of the alcohol free zone.

"Haverhill is a town that is moving forward, and this is due to the excellent work being undertaken by the town and borough council as well as the business community.

"I am pleased to have played a small part in moving the town towards its goals and providing the people of Haverhill with an excellent policing service."

Acting Insp Smith has been a police officer for 14 years, serving with both the Suffolk

Constabulary and the Metropolitan Police.

He said: "I am really looking forward to taking up my new post.

"I believe it is vitally important to our success that we continue to work closely with our partners, to maximise the impact we have in reducing crime and antisocial behaviour.

"I am also determined to ensure we maintain a proactive stance towards all forms of criminality, especially Class A drugs and persistent or prolific offenders.

Acting Insp Smith added: "Through our Safer Neighbourhood Team and in all aspects of our work, I want to ensure we engage with the public, listen to their needs and concerns and respond effectively.

"I see it as vital, therefore, that the public help us by keeping us informed about what is happening in our communities."

Determined to hit the ground running, he added: "This will be a challenging role for me, but I will be working my hardest to further improve performance and provide the best possible service to the people of Haverhill."

Cat hurt by pellet

A CAT was injured after being shot with a lead pellet. The cat returned to its home at Mill Hill, Haverhill, with a cut to its front right shoulder, caused by a lead pellet. Police are treating the incident, which happened between 7pm and 8pm last Friday, as a case of animal cruelty. Anyone with information should contact PCSO Les Scott at the Haverhill North Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774100.

The very best of local business endeavour was celebrated at the 2008 CB9 Haverhill Business Awards on Saturday, with local firms walking away with prestigious prizes.

The awards, organised by the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce and Industry, in association with the Weekly News, culminated in a glittering ball at Chilford Hall, Linton, where around 300 guests waited to hear who the winners were. Paul Donno, chamber chairman, told them: "Haverhill is the home of a diverse range of businesses, many with worldwide acclaim. The awards initiative provides a forum for the local business community to recognise and celebrate the enormous amount of talent, expertise and enterprise that exists within these organisations.

"By highlighting and rewarding the business excellence and innovation found in our environs, we hope to inspire and encourage further achievement."

Mr Donno also said he was pleased the event would help raise money for the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice At Home Appeal, and a healthy profit is

Special surprise for young entrepreneur

A SPECIAL certificate was presented to 13-year-old Kiera Rosenwold, who entered her Buzzy Beadz stall in the Business Awards.

She set up the venture on Haverhill market last October. Kiera, of Hamlet Road, Haverhill, holds a traditional cart and canopy stall every Saturday.

The canny teenage entrepreneur decided to start importing beads, jewellery and cards from as far afield as Cambodia, China, India and Italy, after spotting a gap in the market in her home town. The Stoke College student has now set up her own website, www.buzzybeadz.co.uk and even holds workshop parties for children's birthdays.

Mum Joanne Rosenwold said: "Kiera has been getting a lot of support from lots of people in the town, and the business is going really well. She makes between £100 and £200 a day and has held lots of parties helping younger children to make their own jewellery.

"She gets up really early to do it and it is making her lots of pocket money."

Kiera is aiming for a career in law and hopes her sideline in selling beads will help fund her studies later on.

She had no idea that she was going to be presented with a highly commended certificate in the Young Entrepreneur award. She said: "I was really surprised and pleased.

"I started it up as something to do really and I would like to thank Steve and Dave, the market inspectors, for giving me a chance."

MANORISMS

News from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College

MANY Year 11s have been revising over the past few weeks, as after the half-term the majority of GCSE exams will take place. A full exam timetable, including a list of revision days, can be found on the Castle Manor website. Good luck to all those preparing to take their exams, as well as those who have already started.

■ Last week, sixth form PE students travelled to the Lake District for the weekend. While there, the Year 12s and 13s explored various sports such as canoeing and jousting, as well as camping out in tents over the three days. All who went had a great time, and even wished they could have stayed there longer!

School wins praise for pupils' good behaviour satisfactory but found that pupils made "uneven" progress as they moved through the school.

It said: "Parents are very pleased with the good standard of pastoral care and support the staff provide, especially the many different ways in which the school promotes their children's good personal development and well-being."

"Pupils' behaviour is good and, as a result, the school is a calm and welcoming community where pupils get on well with each other and adults, and enjoy their education."

"Teaching has a number of good features, such as well-managed lessons and a good emphasis on practical activities."

"Learning goals are shared with pupils but are sometimes not focused enough on what they will gain from the lesson, and some pupils are not sufficiently aware of what they are expected to achieve."

Inspectors suggested the school make effective use of information about what pupils know and can do to ensure they make consistent progress as they move through the school.

Maximum class size of 25 urged

CLASS sizes should be cut to a maximum of 25 to help young children who struggle with reading, says a report on primary education.

The findings follow a row over suggestions by schools minister Jim Knight that classes of up to 70 were "perfectly acceptable".

The research was part of the Cambridge-based Primary Review, the biggest inquiry into primary education in England for 40 years.

The study suggests 12-year-olds in the first year of secondary school could also benefit from smaller classes.

But despite evidence that smaller groups yield results, there has been a rise in "whole class" teaching, traditionally associated with children learning by rote, the report said.

It added: "The age of the pupil is important when considering class size effects."

"There is a clear case for small class sizes in the reception year, but research also shows where resources could be further targeted."

It said schools should consider grouping children within their classes to let them interact with each other more.

But it acknowledged curriculum pressures had led to whole class teaching.

The Department for Children, Schools and Families said small classes in the early years were important, so the legal limit for ages up to seven was 30 pupils.

Pinnies out for annual village plant sale day

GREEN pinnies will be worn by members of Hundon Garden Club on Sunday when they sell their wares at the annual plant market.

Members of the club decided to make it a sale with style so visitors can easily see who is selling or who can give them information about how to care for certain plants.

The club organised a "sewing Saturday" with several machines to help produce a dozen pinafores.

The sale will be at the village hall in Hundon between 10.30am and 1pm.

Police vow to tackle booze yobs

POLICE promise they will get tough with yobbish behaviour over the summer months.

Police in West Suffolk will be tackling violence in public places, and its causes, over the coming months as part of this year's summer Staysafe campaign.

The campaign started last Friday and will build on the success of the Christmas campaign by giving the public the information and help they need to have a safe, enjoyable night out, dealing firmly with anyone who chooses to cause trouble and also focusing on enforcing licensing laws.

Superintendent Jon Brighton, who is leading the campaign, said extra officers will be patrolling hotspot locations.

He said: "From previous operations and policing the night-time economy, we have identified key areas where additional patrols should have the most impact on alcohol-fuelled, violent crime. "They will have two main aims. Firstly, to make sure pubs, clubs and off-licences comply with the terms of their licence.

"Alcohol is an aggravating factor in the majority of violent offences my officers deal with in town centres during evenings, so by working with licensees we can limit the amount of alcohol young people purchase and consume, and deal with anyone who does sell alcohol illegally.

"Officers have the powers to confiscate alcohol from underage drinkers and we will seize and dispose of it, as well as taking away any being consumed in alcohol-free zones.

"Secondly, these officers will provide a high-visibility presence throughout the night.

"They will be able to deal with any violent incidents which arise, issuing fixed penalty notices where appropriate which can stop trouble escalating further."

New look

A LISTED building application to build a timber framed structure at the side of the Cock pub at the Street, Thurlow, has been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Bright new start for charity shop

CUSTOMERS were queuing up to get through the door after a refurbished charity shop reopened to the public. The revamped British Heart Foundation (BHF) shop in Haverhill celebrated in style when Haverhill Mayor Les Ager launched the new-look premises last week. The shop's interior has been brightened with new lighting, which has been complemented by stylish laminated flooring. The shop exterior has also undergone a facelift and now features smart new signage. Ruth Sheed, BHF Shops area manager said: "We are delighted with the changes that have been made to the shop - it looks fantastic. We hope that the local community will continue to support the shop as they have done so magnificently in the past." The shop is urgently appealing for good quality clothing, accessories, handbags, shoes, books, records, videos, DVDs, CDs and bric-a-brac. To donate items, either drop them into the shop at 28a High Street, or call (01440) 703245 to arrange a free collection. The Haverhill BHF Shop also has a wide range of volunteering opportunities to suit everyone, including stock sorting and pricing, window dressing and sales assistance.

Stable homes needed for children in care

HAVERHILL residents are being asked to consider becoming foster parents to help children in need of a temporary home.

Fostering Fortnight, a UK-wide campaign aimed at attracting more people to become fosterers, started last week.

The Suffolk Fostering Service is seeking to recruit 40 new carers this year who are interested in providing care to children from babies to teenagers, for short periods to longer term. Anyone who is a good listener, resilient, flexible, and optimistic, has a good sense of humour, and space in their life is encouraged to find out more.

Cllr Patricia O'Brien, Suffolk County Council's portfolio holder for children, schools and young people's services, said: "Foster carers have an extremely important role to play in giving children in care the best possible start in life.

"Children in care can benefit enormously from the chance to experience a stable family life."

More than 700 children in Suffolk are in the care of the county council.

Service hits targets for butting out

ALMOST 4,000 Suffolk smokers have kicked the habit thanks to a county-wide campaign.

The Suffolk Stop Smoking Service (SSSS), an NHS group dedicated to supporting smokers trying to beat the addiction, exceeded tough targets set down by the Government and helped 3,920 people quit between April 2007 and April 2008.

The impressive results have been achieved by a team of nurses at GP practices in Suffolk, as well as midwives and staff at the service who offer advice.

Jeff Keighley, SSSS deputy co-ordinator, said: "We are delighted to have helped so many people to give up smoking, and to have exceeded the tough target set for us by the Department of Health."

Despite the success, the scheme's co-ordinators are keen to push the message harder in the coming 12 months and help even more people to give up once and for all.

BY Stephen Exley

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Mr Keighley said: "We now want to go one step further by reaching smokers who have a high nicotine dependency."

"These are the people who have often failed to quit several times and are less likely to ask for help as they don't believe they can give up. But with the right support, we want to show them that anyone can kick the habit."

Help on offer to smokers includes one-to-one sessions, group support and specialist clinics. Medication to help smokers beat their cravings is also available on the NHS through the service.

In the coming year, new initiatives will be introduced, including a targeted marketing campaign to hit the most dependent smokers.

Mr Keighley added: "Smoking still kills 1,200 people every year in Suffolk and every death is one too many."

CP

Rotary Club prizes for young achievers

STUDENTS who made special efforts to help other pupils and staff at their schools were honoured by their local Rotary Club last week.

The annual Haverhill and District Rotary Club awards were handed out at Haverhill Golf Club, but one recipient,

Polish teenager Anna Dzuba, could not stay long enough to receive hers in person - she had to go back to school to help with translation work.

Anna, 17, moved to Haverhill from Poland with her family and is a sixth former at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College. Because many of her fellow Polish students and their parents speak very little English, Anna has not only helped them to improve their English, but also acted as a translator for the school.

Ivy Smith, also a student at Castle Manor, gave an inspiring presentation on a recent school trip to America before receiving her own award.

Chalkstone Middle School pupil Adam Palmer was described as a pupil very highly regarded by pupils and staff.

Clare Middle School student Ryan Fordham was described as a "Renaissance man" who had turned his life around since he started at the school two years ago. He had come from another school, showing challenging behaviour, but was now achieving well and helpful to staff and other pupils.

Rebecca Mylchreest, from Parkway Middle School, celebrated her 13th birthday by receiving an award and had "really blossomed" at the school. Rebecca acts as a mentor for younger pupils and even takes a group swimming on Saturday mornings.

Chris Vickers, of Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College, was the mastermind behind many school productions, including the annual Stars in Their Eyes show, operating computer and sound equipment.

Fellow student Hollie Grashion was a shy girl who had really come out of her shell, who was kind and supportive to others and a member of the school's Gravity racing team.

Billie Allen, from Castle Hill Middle School, also received an award.

John Senior, president of the Rotary Club, said the awards honoured pupils for other achievements rather than academic ones.

BANK HOLIDAY LEISURE

Time for some serious family fun!

HEDINGHAM CASTLE... you'll have a brilliant time.

ADVERTISING FEATURE

THE best thing about immersing yourself in medieval history is that, come rain or shine, you will have a brilliant time.

This Bank Holiday weekend, Hedingham Castle is just the place for some serious family fun. The Knights of Royal England will open the jousting season as they battle for honour. The crowds can cheer on their champions in a nail biting tournament, where the horses thunder up and down the arena and the naves and knights use all their chivalry and skills. The children can partake and meet the knights.

There is also a stunning falconry display, where you can see up close the birds of prey.

Children can be taught archery in the Tudor archery butts and picnics can be enjoyed in the grounds of the castle.

For those who want to learn about medieval life, the new Living History Exhibition brings the Norman Keep alive to make you feel you have gone back in time to 1300. There is no better place for a history lesson and the fantastic rooms create the backdrop for the whole of modern English history.

The new look food and Old Rosie's beer tent will make the whole day out fun for everyone.

Events will take place on Sunday, May 25 and Monday, May 26. For more information visit www.hedinghamcastle.co.uk

Avoid making any promises, or you'll have to go back on your word. It's better to adopt a wait and see approach, as your schedule could be derailed by unexpected events. Don't let anyone woo you into an arrangement you'll later regret.

A project will undergo many changes before it is finished, so be patient. Adopt an air of detachment whenever you're asked to change this job. At this juncture, it's more important to carry out orders than put in a stellar performance.

Take a flit's comments with a dose of salt. They are far more harmless than they appear. Beware of telling a child one thing, then doing another or you'll lose their respect forever, and store up trouble for times to come.

This isn't the best time to make changes to your household. Keep it to a minimum while your mind and heart will be working in sync. A recurring dream could tell you to start work on a creative project you abandoned.

Gender twist in classic tale of Dr Jekyll

■ HILARIOUS... the Camps Amateur Dramatic Society present a spoof pantomime.

DR JEKYLL turns into Mrs Hyde with hilarious consequences in the latest production by Camps Amateur Dramatic Society this weekend. The spoof horror comedy pantomime, written and directed by Beth Challis, is being staged at Castle Camps Village Hall on Friday and Saturday. Trevor Bishop plays Dr Jekyll, whose potion turns him into a woman – played by his wife Jo Bishop, with the love interest provided by Gerry Pyke as Beth Golightly. Side action is provided by two sinister European spies trying to steal the potion and there is an able cast of 14, with ages ranging from 15 to 80. Ridiculous Russian accents add to the humour and a background of Victorian music hall is provided, so that the audience can sing along during the action. Tickets are £6, £3 concessions, available from the box office on (01440) 762290.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Self-fit rear park sensor is really excellent value

JUST for me! They could have developed it just for me! A reasonably priced parking sensor – fit it yourself – to warn you when something's too near the rear of your car, writes Hilary Goy.

Well, nearly... the sensors fit easily onto the boot lid and stick on fine. The cables then slide under the boot edge and connect to the unit – a torpedo shape in blue and silver plastic – and blue tac did the job for in-boot fixing... this is not for the car proud. The unit then sits anywhere you like.

The first one didn't work with the batteries, or rather produced a high-pitched whine which reminded me of Gran's hearing aid in the 1950s. There is a plug-in alternative, so that's what we did, but wireless it is not. The wire trails elegantly down the length of the interior to the cigarette lighter. No problem as long as you don't have any passengers you actually like...

The unit needed a little time to settle in. It emitted an unexplained plaintive cry as I drove along the Backs with nothing in sight and was rather petulant for a couple of days. Soon enough however, it started to behave; as I backed into my driveway it emitted soft beeps, which became louder and louder until finally an urgent note screamed at me, warning me to brake unless I wanted a new window in place of the brick holding my house in place – I braked.

■ EASY TO INSTALL... the £29.99 rear parking kit involves two sensors like this adhered to the back of your car. They're easy to fix and look discreet from the outside but – see below – from the inside there's lots of trailing wires.

The good points to this little gizmo are many. For example it lets you know when anything is too close to the back of the car, once even a large swooping bird! It does so in gradations so you have an idea of the urgency of the situation.

Unfortunately, the on/off switch is inconveniently placed with the unit sitting behind the driver's seat so I got into the habit of pulling the power out of the cigar socket. I also found that the beeps can be a little random while the unit is in operation.

Otherwise this low-cost rear parking sensor is well worth considering!

■ The JML Parking Sensor plus free grab mat is available price £29.99 from www.jmldirect.com or by phone on 0871 221 2677 9am-5pm Monday to Friday.

■ NOT IDEAL... it's a cheap unit, and it works, but it's a tad inelegant.

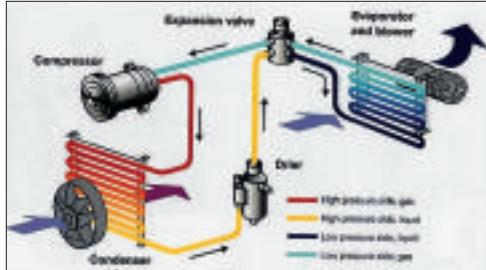

■ SAFELY PARKED... Cambridge resident Hilary Goy with her Renault Clio.

Aircon needs to be used!

BACTERIA and mould can build up over the winter in a car's air conditioning system, which could be the reason for a driver's summer cold, says UK used car group Carcraft.

Motorists use air conditioning more in the summer, but leaving it dormant during the winter can allow nasty bugs to thrive in the system leading to unpleasant odours and a spreading of these bacteria through the car when the air conditioning is switched back on. Use your aircar all year round, says Carcraft – this will help maintain the system and keep it in better shape.

■ AIRCON... use it or lose it.

TRAIN AS A HOME INSPECTOR

Up to 2 million properties being sold every year now need Home Information Packs which must include an Energy Assessment carried out by a newly trained Home Inspector or Energy Assessor. Thousands more of these new professionals will be needed later this year for the rental sector when Government requires around 1.6 million properties being let in the first year to also have Energy Assessments.

This creates new and interesting career opportunities and we require people to train now as Home Inspectors in their spare time. No previous surveying experience is required.

Thousands more new Home Inspectors will also be needed if Government confirm Packs must include a currently optional Home Condition Report.

Current fee earning expectations are £60 to £80 for Energy Assessments and £200 to £300 for Home Condition Reports with up to 15 Assessments or 6 Reports estimated to be carried out in a week, depending on size of properties and supply.

Applicants should apply now for a limited number of training places at the Government's ABBE approved centres of Home Inspector Training near London and in Bristol, Birmingham and Manchester. (4-night accommodation package advice if required.) The Course consists mainly of 7 separately bookable one-week modules, taken over up to 10 months, if this long is needed, and is designed to enable most people to train around their current commitments.

On qualifying you are awarded the ABBE Home Inspector Diploma required by Government and are able to carry out Assessments and Reports on your own, for other Pack Providers or, depending on the market share gained, for our own in-house Pack Provider in return for receiving a course subsidy. Once qualified, additional courses with qualifications now being researched may be available to carry out property valuations, Energy Assessments for commercial properties and flood and fire risk assessments to provide additional income streams.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Yellows sign off on a high note

WEST Wrating U10 Yellows started the season by winning the Aztecs' tournament and finished it in style by securing victory in the Grampian event.

They won their group stage by beating Aztecs, Thurlow Yellows and drawing with Elsenham. They scored a total of nine and conceded just once.

Wrating defeated Thurlow Blues in the semi-final to set up a meeting with Elsenham in the final.

Elsenham scored early on, but then Wrating's never-say-die attitude kicked in and the equaliser came mid-way through the second half.

There were chances at both ends, but the game was to be decided in a penalty shoot-out.

For nine and 10-year olds, in front of several hundred people, this was no easy task.

But the Wrating lads held their nerve and duly dispatched more than the opposition to run out winners.

Wrating squad: James Woodward, Liam Gibbs, Matt Carpenter, Jack Harvey, Jake Murphy, Leyton George, Charlie Ellam, Charlie Ripp, Dion Whitrid, Scott Bishop and Mo Horsley.

■ WINNING WAYS ... the Wrating team after their Grampian triumph. CP

■ CUP WINNERS ... the West Wrating team at Canvey Island. CP

Bush completes Wrating's fightback

WEST Wrating Youth U11 travelled to Canvey Island for the JSMC Ltd Trophy match against the high-flying Essex side Island Boys. With a crowd topping the 100-mark, the match kicked off at pace. Within five minutes, Wrating found themselves two goals down after quick breaks from this experienced Canvey side. Although Wrating began to force the pace midway through the half, the Island Boys added a third and looked to be cruising into half-time before the outstanding Sheath netted well to reduce the arrears to 3-1 going into the break.

The second half was better for Wrating, Elliott saving well and Scotton smashing the back of the net from 25 yards with a thunderbolt.

Stevenson then bravely headed the equaliser with five minutes to play.

Extra time came and Wrating continued with venom and it was

Bush, who scored the vital goal to earn them the 4-3 victory their spirited fightback deserved. Sponsor Jim Sherry, who presented the medals and trophy, said: "I've witnessed a tremendously competitive match today and congratulate all who have taken part."

"I did not expect to see such quality from under-11s. Well done to you all."

West Wrating: Elliott, Bush, Cooper, Foster, Massie, Stevenson, Ager, Payne, Scotton, Bailey, Lambert, Gedny, Torode, Sheath, Ankers, Millar.

GOLF ROUND-UP

Medal delight as McLennan leads the way

HAVERHILL Golf Club's mid-week Medal attracted a large field. The overall winner of the low handicap section was Peter McLennan, who returned a 68, which was matched by Bob Spittle senior in the higher division.

Sandwiched in between, in the 13-20 range was Kim Ward, whose score was one less. Leading scores:

Colville bow out of cup

■ From Back Page. when they suffered a 56-run defeat against Fordham on Sunday. Batting first, Fordham lost an early wicket, but Mark Silcock's 52 put them back on track and Darren Theobald (62) and Mark Abbott (72 not out) pushed them along to 241 for 4. Colville openers Trevor Westley and Arvid Gunderson got them off to a sound start, but once the latter fell on 31, the introduction of the slower bowlers turned the tide for Fordham.

Chris Rule took 4 for 35 and Abbott claimed 4 for 37 to add to his fine display with the bat as Weston were eventually killed off for 185, with opener Westley being the last man out for 71. Colville's league fixture with Bluntisham had been washed out the previous day.

■ HAVERHILL'S scheduled Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship, Division Two match, at home to Mistley, fell victim to Saturday's bad weather.

Haverhill club return with a precious haul

MEMBERS of the Haverhill Tang Soo Do Korean Martial Arts Club collected 20 medals when they took part in the 30th British Southern Championships at Hemel Hempstead. The magnificent haul, which included 11 golds, was achieved by 14 Haverhill members, who went through their paces in front of the 10th Dan Grand Master Lee Kang. The tournament comprised of individual forms in the morning, followed by individual free fighting in the afternoon. Two Haverhill students, 2nd Dan Dean Blackwell and 1st Dan Senior Craig Phillips, earned two of the five places to represent Cambridgeshire for the evening.

In the team fighting tournament, there were some very hard contests against very experienced British team fighters. The Cambridgeshire team won all of their contests and took the gold as championship winners. Haverhill instructor Kevin Blackwell said: "Hundreds of students, from all over the country, including Ireland and Scotland, took part in the event.

"Out of our 14 students, we had 12 people win medals, which is a major achievement for us.

"We could not hope for a better performance, shown by everyone that took part. Well done to them all."

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Ellis delighted as Horseheath rally

HORSEHEATH were thrashed by 107 runs in their Cheffins CCA Senior League, Division One match at Barrington on Saturday.

But they bounced back the following day to make progress in the National Village Cup.

Mark Ferrari did the business with the bat for Barrington, smashing a powerful 92.

Scott Douglas chipped in with 36 as the home side racked up 234 for 8. Stuart Kerridge was the most successful Horseheath bowler, taking 3 for 42.

Robbie Ketteridge top-scored with 35 as Horseheath set about their reply, but with Clive Heginbotham claiming 3 for 21 on his debut and Kevin Faint 2 for 4, they were dismissed for 127.

Horseheath skipper Gary Ellis said he had wanted to bat first, but bowed to the wishes of his team-mates who elected to field.

He said: "The wicket played a lot better for them batting-wise and we bowled with a wet ball so that virtually took me and Robbie out of the equation because it didn't swing."

But Ellis was a happier man after Horseheath knocked Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League side Abington out of the National Village Cup in the regional quarter-finals.

Horseheath were struggling at 81 for 7 but Ellis (60) and Martin Giles (49 not out) put together a stand of 70 before the latter went on to make a partnership of 44 with Nick Baldwin to see them through to 201 for 9.

In reply, Will Earl hit 32 and Guy Ennew 30, but Martin Towers took 3 for 26 as Abington were restricted to 169 for 7.

Ellis said: "I was very happy with this performance when you consider Abington are in the league above us."
